Notable Cases

On Wednesday December 18th, Moreno Valley CBAT provided mental health crisis services to a 59-year-old male who was living alone in an RV trailer. The subject called 911 but due to not being lucid he was unable to intelligently verbalize the nature of his crisis nor give his location. CBAT eventually located the subject and conducted a thorough risk assessment. The subject was found to be experiencing tactile and audible hallucinations causing him to neglect his wellbeing. The subject was determined to meet criteria for being a danger to himself and gravely disabled. CBAT linked him to ETS via AMR. CBAT will provide follow-ups as needed.

SPECIAL TEAMS

RBST | GANG | SET | POP | HOT Teams

The Moreno Valley Station Special Teams consist of RBST, SET/GANG and POP/ HOT Teams. The Robbery and Burglary Suppression Team (RBST) actively investigate all robberies, carjackings, thefts, and burglaries occurring in the jurisdiction of the Moreno Valley Station. The main goal of the Special Enforcement Team (SET) is to enhance quality of life for Moreno Valley residence by investigating violent and gang related crimes and to bring cases to a successful conclusion by identifying, apprehending, interviewing, and arresting suspects. The Problem Oriented Policing (POP) team respond to a variety of calls from citizens of Moreno Valley that may fall outside the normal patrol function. POP deputies conduct proactive investigations into narcotics trafficking, human trafficking, marijuana cultivation and vehicle theft with a nexus to Moreno Valley. The Homeless Outreach Team (HOT) team responds to calls from business owners and citizens regarding transient activity.
